

Enat Bank sign an MOU with TDB

Addis Ababa, December 7th 2018, Enat Bank signed a memorandum of understanding with Eastern & Southern African Trade and Development Bank (TDB). The signing ceremony was held on December 5th 2018 at Sheraton Hotel Addis Ababa.

The purpose of the MOU is a partial-risk guarantee collaboration to support Ethiopian SMEs with a special focus on women-owned export-oriented business. It is a part of commitment to make entrepreneurship more inclusive in the 22 Member state of TDB.

The MOU was signed by Mr. Wondwossen Teshome, Enat Bank President and Mr. Admassu Tadesse TDB president and CEO. In the presence of H.E. Hailemariam Desalegn Former Prime Minister of Ethiopia, H.E. Ruplah Banda, Former President of Zambia and Member of the TDB Eminent Panel of Advisors, H.E. Meaza Ahsenafi, President of the Ethiopian Federal Supreme Court, Hanna Tilahun, Chair Board of Directors of Enat Bank as well as Board of Directors of TDB.

Enat Bank is selected as a partner of this collaboration because of its unique approach on focusing women economic empowerment. The instrument will allow Enat Bank to reach out to more particularly women-led and owned SMEs and young entrepreneurs.

TDB is established in 1985 as a multilateral, treaty-based development financial institution to fosters trade, regional economic integration & sustainable development.

Enat Bank was established in 2013 by 11 diverse visionary women's with dual objectives of universal Banking for all sectors of the society but with a special focus on women economic empowerment.

Contact information: Women Financial Service & Marketing Dep't 011558 94 16

